MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP

Welcome to our Diocese; the Anglican Diocese of Maseno North. We are one of the Dioceses in the Anglican Church of Kenya with a rich Christian missionary heritage which can be traced back to 1901. The Diocese has grown over time and significant gains have been realized in the spiritual, physical, institutional and economic spheres of our Diocese. We are intentional in mission and evangelism which has given rise to the many churches that we have planted in the Diocese and this continues to be a key priority. However, just as Joshua, we recognize that in this season in our generation, there are still more lands to conquer and a new frontier in ministry. In our commitment and dedication to taking the Diocese to the next level, we have developed a decade road map that will become a reference document, a blue print and a management tool. This road map envisions an Empowered, Sustainable and Mission Oriented Diocese boldly proclaiming Christ. The plan ensures that the Diocese is self-sustaining, self-propagating, self-governing and self-managing.

We appreciate that the Strategic plan has been developed in a participatory and collaborative manner where the views, opinions, dreams and inspirations of every stakeholder has been listened to. This is therefore our vision as a Diocese and by God's grace we will make it a reality.

As I reflect on our ten (10) year journey that we are embarking now, the story of Nehemiah and his assignment on rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem provides a great reference point for us. Some of the key principles I would want us to borrow as we get into strategic implementation are;

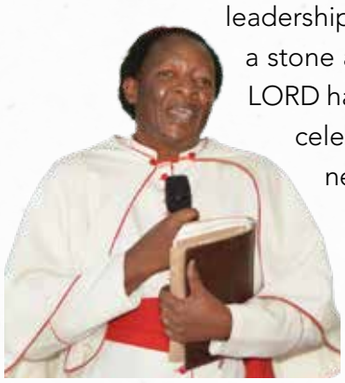

1. Nehemiah listened to his brothers and enquired about the Jewish remnant that had survived exile and the state of his city; Jerusalem. We will listen to all stakeholders because each of us in this Diocese is important and play a key role in our implementation journey. Your thoughts, suggestions, encouragement and feedback are important to us.
2. Though Nehemiah was not living in Jerusalem, he carried this burden to heart. The key priority areas are informed by our pain points and inspirations. We must carry the weight of each of these Strategic Result Pillars as expressed because each of them contributes to the desired end we have described.
3. Nehemiah recognized the great privilege of being in the palace. He sought help from the King as well as resources. Each one of us in endowed with resources which include time, availability as well as physical resources. As we get into implementation, we call each one of us to commit to this noble cause. Let us hold hands and work together; let us invite our friends where necessary so that our decade plan becomes a reality. In whatever area of privilege that the Lord has placed you, mobilize resources for this honorable cause.
4. Nehemiah recognized that the task was enormous and involved other people in this assignment. As we get into the implementation phase, we are calling on everyone to get involved in this journey. Neighborhood churches, local congregations, parishes, our social enterprises, community social economic vehicles and friends of the Diocese are all key players in this journey.
5. Despite opposition from very key persons in the land, Nehemiah was focused. As we execute the Strategic Plan, the internal and external environment could be turbulent, there could be opposition but the Lord of heaven will give us success.
6. Nehemiah set timelines, tracked and measured performance. As the assignment began, Nehemiah set clear timelines and in a record fifty-two (52) days, it was completed. We are therefore committed to the set timelines and will ensure that our progress is well tracked. We have a clear monitoring and evaluation framework to track progress.

At the end of the assignment, Ezra the priest brought the law before the whole assembly. In our Diocese, the great Diocese of Maseno North, God takes the center stage and every step is for his glory. He must remain at the center stage as we take this journey.May the Lord bless you all.

Thank you

Right Rev. Charles Kascan Asilutwa
Diocesan Bishop
ACK Diocese of Maseno North.

FOREWARD

We express our appreciation to our Bishop Rt. Rev Charles Kascan Asilutwa for his visionary and able leadership in the last eight (8) years. We have realized significant milestones and like Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, saying, "Thus far the LORD has helped us." (1 Sam 7:12) we are also affirming that this far the Lord has helped us. We celebrate our achievements with joy and look forward with a blessed hope in Christ that the next ten (10) years will be greater.

We have committed to a vision of an Empowered, Sustainable and Mission Oriented Diocese boldly proclaiming Christ and our Strategic Result Pillars are clearly defined as follows: Spiritual Pillar, Human Capital Capacity Pillar, Institutional Capacity Pillar, Collaboration, Network and Partnerships Pillar; and Community Transformation Pillar.

The implementation phase is now with us and we must admit that the true worth of this document is on the extend of implementation. I therefore wish to call on all of us to effectively participate in our respective spheres. We have what it takes to begin the process and will keep on growing our capacity so that we enjoy continuous and never-ending improvement.

The journey of developing this Strategic Plan has been collaborative and participatory ensuring that all the stakeholders' thoughts and views are well captured. In this regard, we wish to therefore appreciate all the clergy and evangelists that took time to fill the questionnaires and also participate in the focused group discussions. We also recognize the immense contribution of the lay people that was brought by the select persons that also participated in the focused group discussions, key informant interviews and questionnaires.

We also appreciate the efforts by the Synod, Standing committee of the Synod, Board of Finance, Mothers' Union Department, Kenya Anglican Men' Association, Youth Ministry and Children Ministry. Your contribution has made this dream real and a reality.

Finally, we appreciate the role of the Principal Consultant Faith Kabiru of Equip Center of Management for your technical and professional input in developing this document.

Thank you

Canon Dr. Janet Wasiche Omyonga
Vice Chair to Synod

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

ACK Diocese of Maseno North can be traced back to 1904 when Mr. Hugh Osborn Sacille who had started a CMS station in Vihiga in 1904 relocated to Maseno in 1906. From this humble beginning, the Diocese grew to give rise to two (2) Dioceses in 1970 upon sub division. These Dioceses are; Our Diocese - ACK Diocese of Maseno North and ACK Diocese of Maseno South.

However, it is important to note that fifty-five (55) years since the inception of the Diocese of Maseno North, there are still new frontiers to be conquered. To ensure that the Diocese is fully evangelized and sustainable ministry delivery, the 2025-2035 Strategic Plan has been developed. It is a road map towards a defined desired end. The goal of the Strategic plan is to provide a blue print and a reference document to all stakeholders with a clear strategic direction and a defined pathway on how to get there.

To make this a reality, the Diocese therefore embarked on a participatory and collaborative Strategic Planning Process. All the key stakeholders were involved through focused group discussions, questionnaires and key informant interviews. Literature was also reviewed; and trends analyzed, and critiqued. This process led to the development of the Diocesan strategic direction which has been defined in the vision statement as "an Empowered, Sustainable and Mission Oriented Diocese boldly proclaiming Christ. The pathway to realizing this has been outline in the mission statement as "To equip God's people for wholesome transformation. Guiding values that will be inculcated in every stakeholder to effectively implement the strategic plan are Faith in God, Integrity, Unity, Professionalism and; Transparency and Accountability

Environmental scanning was conducted using various models which include SWOT, PESTEL and Stakeholders analysis model. These models revealed the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats of the Diocese. Stakeholders were also identified and functional relationships defined. This is because we recognize that stakeholders are key drivers in implementation. The external environment was also well outlined in context of the church and the expected response of the church highlighted. Out of this, five (5) Strategic Result Pillar have been identified as areas of priority in the next five (5) years. These are Spiritual Pillar, Human Capital Capacity Pillar, Institutional Capacity Pillar, Collaboration, Network and Partnerships Pillar and Community Transformation Pillar.

The Implementation and coordination framework has been comprehensively analyzed and realigned to allow for effective implementation. The monitoring, evaluation, advisory and learning framework has also been developed to track and measure performance.

CHAPTER ONE

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Overview

This chapter looks at the background of ACK Maseno North Diocese in context of the Strategic Planning Process. It further gives the highlights of milestones realized since inception, challenges faced and the lessons learnt; rationale, assumptions and general organization of the strategic plan.

1.2 Background Information

The history of the Anglican Church Diocese of Maseno North is traced back to the ACK Diocese of Maseno North which is a product of mission and evangelism. ACK Diocese of Maseno North It is traced to 1906, when Hugh Osborn Saville who had started Church Mission Society (CMS) mission station at Vihiga in 1904 relocated to Maseno where he established a Mission station on 14th January 1906. His relocation to Maseno would later lead to the growth of Christianity in the region situated along Kisumu-Busia Road, 26 kilometers from Kisumu and approximately 400 Kilometers west of Nairobi. He was later joined by Rev J.J. Willies on 21st October 1906. Through their commitment and dedication, Mission and Evangelism work in the region began under the Omuseno tree (hence the name Emuseno and Maseno). The church was built at this spot and foundation stone laid in August 1908. This church was named ACK St. Paul's Maseno. From then, the work of the church continued to be felt within the church as well as in the community. The church became an agent of wholesome transformation. The church responded to different issues affecting the community which included poverty and sickness, advocacy and lobby for the rights of African majority, civic education, economic development and social welfare. One of the flagship projects that was established to meet the needs of the community was Maseno school of Nursing which began in 1935.

1.3 The Birth of ACK Diocese of Maseno North.

ACK Diocese of Maseno North was divided in 1970 giving rise to the current ACK Diocese of Maseno North and ACK Diocese of Maseno South. Rt. Rev. Festo Olang' became the first bishop. However, later in the year he was elected the first African Archbishop of the Anglican Church. Rt. Rev James I Mundia was elected the second Bishop of the Diocese and served until 1993. During the same period, Rt. Rev. Isaack Namango. In 1995, the Rt. Rev. Simon M. Oketch was consecrated as the 3rd Bishop of the Diocese where he served till 2018. He was succeeded by the current Bishop Rt. Rev Charles Asilutwa who was concentrated and enthroned on 10th June 2018.

1.4 Key Observations during the Planning Period.

As the Diocese gets into the implementation, there are key observations that must be kept in mind:

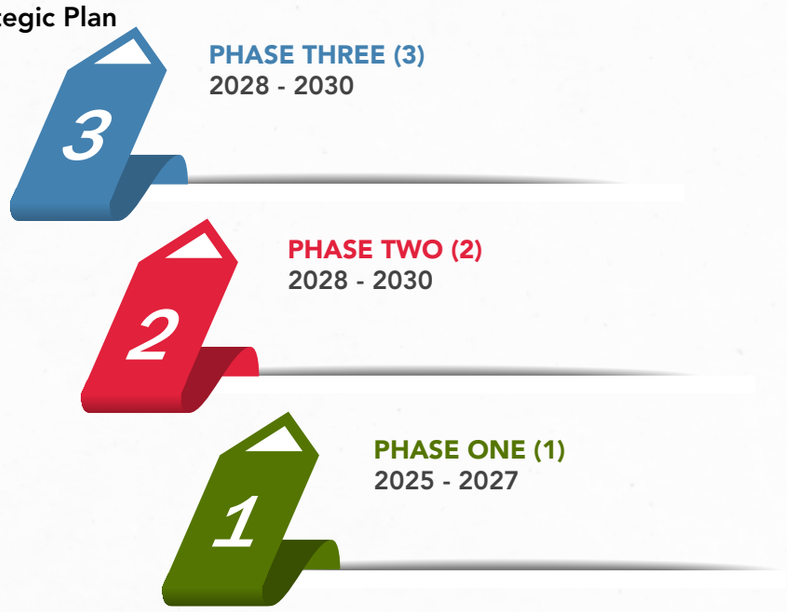

1. The Diocese has a rich Christian heritage. There is need to document this history so that many generations to come can understand and appreciate the investment that has been done since 1902.
2. The Diocese has a large mission area and their central role of the church must be upheld. Therefore, mission and evangelism, pastoral care and outreach initiatives must be given attention.
3. Due to the large mission area, the Diocese must mobilize resources (physical, financial and human resources) to effectively engage in the core business of the church.
4. Capacity building is paramount for all the stakeholders. This will ensure that work is done effectively and efficiently; and that every stakeholder is engaging in an optimal manner.
5. There must be systems and structures that allow effective implementation of the Strategic Plan. This will call for appointment of a Strategic Planning Implementation Committee that will provide oversight.

1.5 The Rationale for the 2025-2034 Strategic Plan.

The Diocese of ACK Diocese of Maseno North has grown and significant gains have been realized over time. However, there are still areas of growth and impact to be realized. The Diocese is now serving multiple generations and therefore a need to be strategic in the way the Diocese is run. This has led to the process of developing a strategic plan that will provide a clear Strategic direction in the next ten (10) years. To ensure tracking, the Strategic Plan is in three phases of (3) three years for the two (2) phases and (4) years for the last phase.

The goal is to define the strategic direction with clarity, outline the pathway of attaining the overral vision, define the Strategic Result Pillarss, key flagship projects and programmes. The strategic plan end result is to realize a fully evangelized Diocese with systems and structures put in place for sustainability. Every key stakeholder has been involved in the process of developing a Result based and Mission oriented Strategic Plan.

A Three Phase Strategic Plan

1.6 Basic Assumption Made during the Strategic Planning Process

During the planning process, the following assumptions were made.

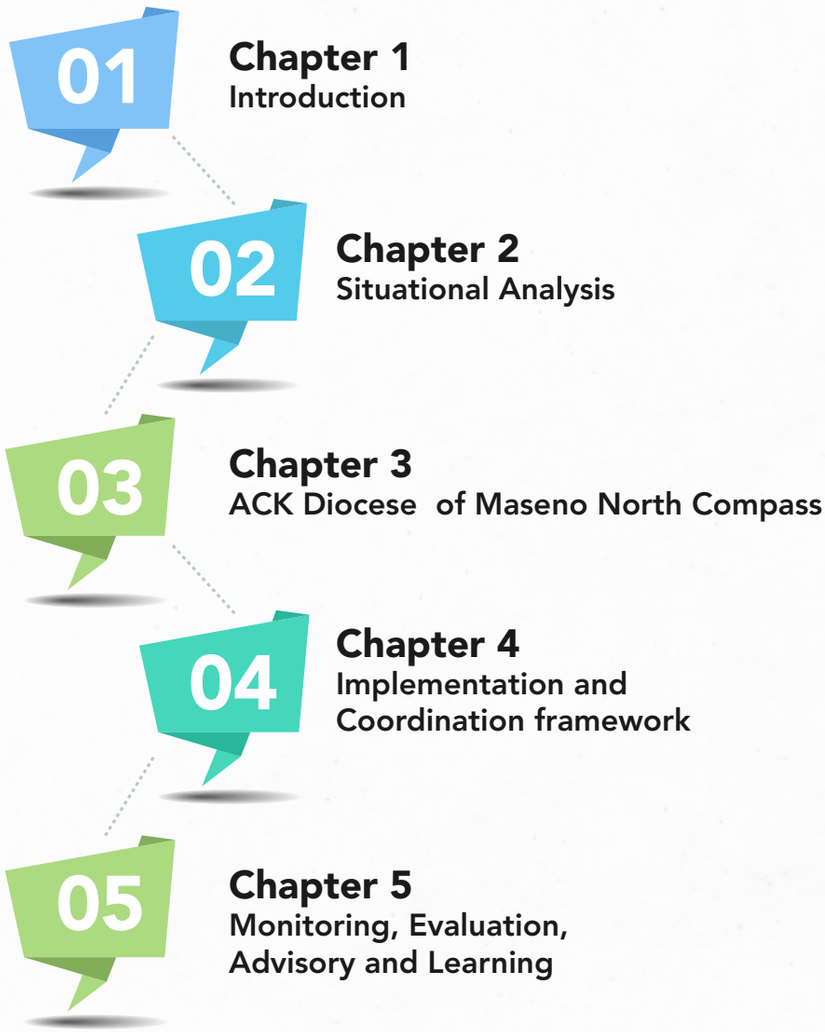

1. The internal operating environment will not significantly change. In the event of significant change, the Diocese of Maseno North will engage in intentional responsive initiatives.
2. Political, social and economic environment will be stable. In the event of instability, the church will be pro-active in developing appropriate responses and the Diocese will also take up the advocacy and lobby role.
3. Resources will be available to drive the implementation process. The Diocese will employ creative and collaborative techniques and ensure that resources are mobilized in a timely manner to drive the implementation.
4. The current systems and structures will be reviewed and aligned to support the new strategic direction.
5. Stakeholders will own the document and effectively implement at all levels.
6. Key implementers will have the capacity to effectively implement the strategic plan.
7. Periodic reviews would be done after every phase

1.7 Methodology and Organization of the Strategic Plan

This strategic plan was developed in a collaborative and participatory manner. The (3) three houses were involved; the house of the Bishop, the house of Clergy and house of laity. This was through questionnaires and key informant interviews. Literature was also reviewed to reveal background information, operational information and trends. The information gathered has been critically analyzed by the strategic planning committee and clear Strategic Result Pillars and strategies developed.

The strategic plan is organized in five (5) chapters. These are;
Chapter 1 – Introduction.
Chapter 2 – Situational Analysis.
Chapter 3 – ACK Diocese of Maseno North Compass
Chapter 4 – Implementation and Coordination framework.
Chapter 5 – Monitoring, Evaluation, Advisory and Learning.

Implications Unstable political environment has a great effect on livelihood of the community served by the church. The church has a role in advocacy and lobby in matters arising from the political environment.	Implications The Diocese, congregation and community served by the church operates within an economic environment. Any major changes in the economic environment have a direct impact on the operations of the Diocese. The church must be intentional in building the economic capacity of the members and also help members access to information and opportunities.
Social Environment • Breakdown of morals and values in the Society. • Increased Crime, Drug and Substance Abuse and alcoholism • Increased family breakdown and disintegration. • LGBTQ groups in the community • Infiltration of retrogressive cultural practices in the church.	Technological Environment • Increased internet connectivity • Increased use of mobile phones which expands communication channels. • Enhanced communication through the use of electronic, mainstream and social platforms • Integration of ICT in service delivery However, it is also worth noting that there are also some negative impacts of ICT. Some of these are • Increased cyber crimes • Impact on labour productivity

Implications Services to the members of the congregation are provided within a given society. Social factors inform the kind of programmes and projects developed by the church. The church is the moral voice and voice of reason in the community. It must therefore never lose its credibility and must develop programmes that respond to social issues affecting the congregation and the community.	Implications Technology will either promote or impede the operations of any organization. The Diocese has a responsibility in ensuring that technology becomes a driver and not a barrier in achievement of her vision.
Ecological Environment • Pollution- Water, noise and air. • Solid and clinical waste disposal and management • Climate change affecting livelihoods. • Effects of global warming and change of the eco-system. • Deforestation and its effects that include flooding, land and mud slides • Unpredictable weather patterns	Legal Environment • Increased need for litigations on claims of rights and freedoms. • Introduction of alternative dispute resolution. • Need for Statutory compliance and other legal demands. • Taxation laws
Implication Nature is unforgiving and every institution must seek to protect the environment. The Diocese must therefore be deliberate in sustainability of the environment. The Diocese must initiate environmental stewardship initiatives that promote environmental sustainability.	Implication The church operates within the laws of the land. In the pursuit of her vision, the Diocese must ensure adherence to the laws of the land. The Diocese must also be alert of changes in the laws that may promote or impede her mandate.

i. Bishops visits to the parishes: The Bishop will have scheduled visits to the parishes to observe, see and make judgments that inform daily decisions of those parishes.
ii. Reporting: The Diocese will break down the deliverables from the strategic plan and task parishes to execute through annual workplans. They will then provide reports through the established SPCs.
iii. Work plans: All parishes will be expected to draw their annual work-plans from the SP implementation matrix. This will provide the SPIC with a tracking reference.
iv. Performance appraisals: Parishes will undergo annual appraisals based on the Strategic Result Pillars and appropriate feedback given to them.
v. Feedback forms: Feedback forms will be given to the congregation and other stakeholders to ensure that stakeholder interests, opinions, suggestions and compliments are captured for use in the planning process and continuous improvement.
